

Dear Oppi,

You may have guessed that one of the men "near la France" whom I have seen in Chicago was Ireland. His moral objections to what we are doing are in my opinion honest. After what he told me I should feel better if I could explain to him my point of view. This I am doing in the enclosed letter. What I say is, I believe, in agreement with your views. At least in the main points. I hope you will find it correct to send my letter to Ireland.

Edward
